

QUESTION

John 20:30-31 “And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

John specifically points out that his purpose for writing this Gospel was so that the person reading it would believe that Jesus is the Messiah [Christ], and also believe that He is the Son of God, and that by believing those things, the reader would have life through His name.

So, would you agree that someone could only read the Gospel of John and know everything they need to know to be saved?

Would it surprise you that the word “repent” [Greek metanoia] NEVER appears in the Gospel of John?

Please answer in the comments: Why do you think the word “repent” never appears in the Gospel of John?
